

Handicapped Girl Scouts Get Awards

Eleven handicapped Girl Scouts, patients at the Jewish Sanitarium and Hospital for Chronic Diseases, E. 49th St. and Rutland Road, were awarded their second-class badges yesterday at ceremonies in Joseph Albert Temple.

Along with the well-earned badges, they also received attendance pins. Guests at the ceremonies were members of Cub Pack 257, which is also affiliated with the hospital; parents of the youngsters and scouting executives.

Mrs. Marjorie Curtis is leader of the girls' troop, assisted by Mrs. Sheila Robbins, Mrs. Mildred Littenberg and Daisy Spieler.

Jewish Special Needs Girl Scouts - Joseph Albert Temple

Clipped By:
jaysorid
Dec 31, 2025