

The Canarsie Courier, Thursday, January 29, 1976 - Page 6

Lights For The Sabbath

Sisterhood Congregation Beth Tikvah Knesseth Israel, 8800 Seaview Avenue, Bklyn, N.Y. shown participating in Women's Branch UOJCA National Hospital Candelabra Project which will allow hospitalized Jewish women to light Sabbath & Holiday candles. An electric twin branched candelabra is presented to Rabbi Karl Sodden, Chaplain of Kingsbrook Jewish Medical Center by Gussie Goldberg from Sisterhood Congregation Beth Tikvah Knesseth Israel. Present from left to right, Hilda Gelber, recreational therapist of Kingsbrook Jewish Medical Center, Corrine Gottlieb, past president sisterhood Cong. Beth Tikvah and employed at Kingsbrook Jewish Medical Center, Mr. Solomon Berlin, Assistant Director of Administration at KJMC, Gussie Goldberg, UOJCA delegate from Congregation Beth Tikvah, Rabbi Sodden, Chaplain at Kingsbrook Jewish Medical Center, Sarah Shatkin, member of Sisterhood Congregation Beth Tikvah, Board of Directors and employee of Kingsbrook Jewish Medical Center.

Clipped By:
jaysorid

Oct 12, 2025