

Jewish Sanitarium Set To Dedicate Synagogue

Dedication of the new synagogue of the Jewish Sanitarium and Hospital for Chronic Diseases will take place March 19, it was announced today by Isaac Albert, president.

The new synagogue, which is housed in a separate building on the grounds of the hospital, replaces the old synagogue which was situated in the Max Blumberg Pavilion of the hospital.